

Contact: Joanne Kaeding 232-0441

September 8, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILL GROSS TO RECEIVE HUMANITARIAN AWARD

Bill Gross has been selected as this year's recipient of Temple Beth El's Robert Feder Award.

Gross is the Founder and President of Farm Rescue. Under Gross' leadership, Farm Rescue has assisted more than 100 farm families in the upper Midwest.

Gross was selected for this award because of his tireless efforts to help so many needy families going through difficult times. "It's a great honor and privilege to receive this award," said Gross. "It's a credit to all our volunteers who have made Farm Rescue such a success."

Gross says he's humbled by the award. "I consider myself a hard working person just trying to help some people," he said.

Previous award winners include North Dakota Special Olympics founder Roger Kerns, Fargo teacher Joyce Wallman, and Cullen Foundation founders Matt and Bridget Cullen.

Gross will receive his award at a special dinner in his honor in November.

Anyone interested in attending the dinner can call Temple Beth El at 701-232-0441.

After receiving his award, Bill Gross posed for a photo with Jan Feder, the widow of Robert Feder.