Farm Rescue Wraps Up Record-Breaking Year
Farm Rescue Helps Largest Number of Farm Families since Inception

JAMESTOWN, N.D, December 3, 2013 - Farm Rescue, a nonprofit organization that provides planting and harvesting assistance free of charge to farm families who have experienced a major illness, injury or natural disaster, has finished harvesting for 2013. 50 farm families were helped this year, and the reasons ranged from paralysis, broken bones, cancer and natural disasters.

“Every year, we try to help the maximum number of farm families experiencing unexpected crises, and this year, we were able to help 50 farm families”, said Bill Gross, founder and president. “We are thankful for our volunteers, sponsors, and all who support Farm Rescue in making a positive impact for present and future generations of farm families and rural communities.”
