Country music recording artist Jason Brown has performed for hundreds of thousands of music fans from across the Midwest to Corpus Christi, Texas. It's because of their continuing support, his dedication to the fans, and his loyalty and love for the music industry that Jason Brown is considered one of country music's most promising up and coming innovative artists.

Farm Rescue is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that helps farm families experiencing major injury, illness or natural disaster. Since its inception in 2006, Farm Rescue has helped over 230 families by planting or harvesting their crops. Operating in five states in the upper Midwest: North Dakota, South Dakota, eastern Montana, Minnesota, and Iowa, Farm Rescue is run almost entirely by volunteer labor and is funded by sponsorships, grants, and donations. Farm Rescue has recently joined forces with up-and-coming country music artist Jason Brown.
